SOUVENIRS, NOT JUST TRACTORS, AVAILABLE AT THE 2013 NATIONAL FARM MACHINERY SHOW

Louisville, Ky. (Jan. 31, 2013) - If you're short on cash and not ready to commit to a tractor or combine at the National Farm Machinery Show, there are plenty of shopping options at the Family Living Center. In the Family Living Center you'll find unique merchandise for the whole family that won't break your budget.

The East Hall of the Kentucky Exposition Center will be transformed into a shopping destination with more than 80 booths. From accessories for the home to clothing and jewelry, the Family Living Center has something to meet all shopping needs. Among the exhibits, shoppers will find glass figurines at Ely Blown Glass and John Deere toys and merchandise at Henry County Supply, Inc. Other products include plush farm animals from Granny's Attic, as well as handcrafted gifts and collectibles at Breezy Ridge Antiques and Crafts and telescoping flagpoles and flags at Uncommon USA. For hungry shoppers, The Sweet Shoppe and Wisconsin Cheese and Sausage Company will have sweet and savory snacks.

The Family Living Center is set aside from the main National Farm Machinery Show exhibit area so that visitors can casually shop for special gifts and souvenirs for friends, farm toys and collectibles for the kids, unique accessories and gadgets for around the house. It's open daily from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Feb. 13-16, as part of the National Farm Machinery Show.

###

The National Farm Machinery Show, the nation's largest indoor farm show, features the agricultural industry's most comprehensive display of equipment, services and technology. Held annually at the Kentucky Exposition Center in Louisville, Kentucky, the show attracts 300,000 attendees from the United States and around the world. The Championship Tractor Pull, the country's oldest indoor tractor pull, accompanies the show to provide an added element of entertainment and competition. The National Farm Machinery Show occupies over one million square feet of contiguous exhibit space, contributes $19 million in economic impact to the Commonwealth each year, and is owned and produced by the Kentucky State Fair Board.
